Kathy Hoeltzel gave a wonderful and thorough report in September on The Oregon Trail: A New American Journey by Rinker Buck. He and his brother Nicholas undertook the 2,000 mile journey covering six states in a covered wagon (which they had built) drawn by a team of three mules. He said that the trip required a certain bit of naiveté and learning to live with uncertainty. We also celebrated Eleanor Randles’s 98th birthday with a cake made by Carol Whalen.
